'WHITES' DEFEAT 'BLACKS'

Chess Tournery Turns Out Just Like Race Riot.

The battle between the whites and the blacks at the Tulsa Chess and Checker club last night was a miniature affair compared to a similar battle which was going on in the city at the same time. History repeated itself, for practically every player of black met defeat in the clubhouse while the blacks were going down to defeat in the battle being waged in all parts of the city. The club was host to a lot of uninvited guests, a number of hysterical men and women taking refuge therein, while the excitement was raging. The first ten men in the tournament at 6 o'clock were closely bunched, with Cole maintaining his supremacy.

SALES METHODS IN PERSIA

Shop Exterior Ape West But East Rules Bargain Counter.

In Teheran are aristocratic shoe shops where the styles of Europe and America are copied from illustrations in catalogues that have somehow or other found their way out there. These shops have glass windows and real doors, and they display their goods in a way thought to be truly Persian. The glass windows, though the panes are small, must have cost a deal of money, for glass is almost unknown in Persia.

The master shoemaker stands proudly at his door and welcomes a customer with the greeting, "All that I have is yours—my shop and all its goods." But once the prospective customer is inside the shoekeeper forgets to be the Frenchman of the orient and the bargaining methods of the east begin.

The customer is assured that the

MISSOURI, Okla., May 31.—When the trial of Ed Bailey, aged 28, negro, on a charge of murdering N. Matias, an aged pawnbroker, who was shot and beaten to death in his store on November 14, last, was called in the district court today, the defense obtained a continuance until fall on the ground that the jury was summoned by Jim Robison, sheriff, a witness for the state, and because of the absence of nine defense witnesses.

Mailing Privileges Restored.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Postal prohibitions against the Milwaukee Leader and the New York Call, two socialist newspapers, were withdrawn today by Postmaster General Hays, who restored them to second class mailing privileges. The action was in line with that recently taken in the case of the Liberator, a periodical published in New York City.
